pain, the it doe I've tri that to ind it' t so grea out I Yeah, ar t's a lot o xtra wor cause th s kinda ure it out ere it is comin om, you best ere's gonna be some gonn e pain way [l hts]. Tha ltimat godd n it," ma 'cause n you ha more of a go on, re resol like "I not gon give ing that's I'm still not exactly a m n sell ke be en me a them. (ourse I hi and I l really g d about t Green y, but ju he same still be re album, is probably really girlfriend who w always li "The St es are so Why don ou do sc thing? A thing, you ow?" appointi for me, se I'm big fa much of it at the time, but And even then it wouldn' e. And v it's fins goo cause th 've got th ngs. uld go to ool all d and I ha hothin I'm ju od about that. but Voodoo Lounge? I didn't get all the way throu it, fe eally bad out tha o, obviou . When I is and ad to he hat corp ate shi er an o one would play my music, decided to gain worldly success and to bring my ork d g, with t of help m fate an istory. Now a is point u read it the ls motherfucker's better He put down the phone and I was so angry, like which is sically t it you he n this [n record. frankly, d that's ur all n say it it is that if you can work on it and have a triumph next time. That's how "Okay, I'm not going to be le to cha the ma and you c go back a I have a k and cons t shit. 'Cause pain pretty own artist has made him the target o that cannot be done—regulating a Well, for h emotion nd physi pain, th oddam t," m have a million bucks in what you're saying. Um, it's not as bad as it looks, Well I'm fine, no problems there, but I know mon t, come a go, and i ways see d to b ears e never known what it's And over that time I've seen so many nonpioneers,or miserably obscure. And the money often gets y sell the xt shitloa f your r rds. I erent ey're happening," andsquandered, 'cause usually when you make it too fast,then a few years later they can't fuckin' get arreste people w were doi whatev as po ar at

been a very slow, steady I may have been on some kind of psychedelic, but I started leaping around and singing whatever was in my m l, and I very an that becau house turned off the heat in our rehearsal room because he said that we weren't a real band—ha ha ha ha ha ha ha. That made ver ngry, and it ange mbins with oach—it was fun. Ha ha ha ha. And that was the first day that I kinda Yeah, and it's a lot of extra work, 'cause there's gonna be pai nyway [la ts]. Tha ltima he fuckin' guitar. No, I got some of my style from the soul revues that used to come through town, and a lot of it was from...well, they call it "world music" now f Michigan]-Verve/Folkways had a great, great fuckin' collection of shit—and I started listening to a lot of music from different cultures, especially Middle Eas ying, and I fronted a blues song. My knees were shaking, and I was as pathetic as any other guy who shouldn't do this for a living [laughs]. Right. I was just sorta standi