

G. ENGLISCHE UND AMERIKANISCHE TON-
ARBEITEN

- BARBER, Edwin Atlee. The Pottery and Porcelain of the United States. An historical review of american Ceramic Art from the earliest times to the present day. With 223 Illustrations. New-York, G. P. Putnam's Sons, 1893. 8°. (11311.)
- BLASHFIELD, J. M. A Selection of Vases, Statues, Busts etc. from Terra-cottas. 105 Pl. London Weale, 1857. 4°. (1164.)
- BURTON, William, F. C. S. A History and Description of English Earthenware, and Stoneware (to the beginning of the 19th. Century). Containing 24 Plates in Colours, together with Reproductions of Marks and numerous Illustrations. London, Cassell and Comp. Ltd., 1904. 8°. (13539.)
- CHURCH, A. H. & M. A. OXON. English Earthenware. A Handbook to the Wares made in England during the seventeenth and eighteenth Centuries as illustrated by specimens in the national Collections. With numerous Woodcuts. London, Chapman & Hall, 1884. 8°. (10585.)
- ENGLISH Pottery and Porcelain: being a concise account of the Development of the Potters Art in England. Profusely illustrated. London, „The Bazaar“ Office, 1875. 8°. (4681.)
- EXAMPLES of inlaid gothic Tiles, consisting of twenty-four Specimens, en graved in Fac-simile, of the Size of the Originals existing in Winchestercathedral, Romsey Abbey Church etc. — Examples of encaustic Tiles, consisting of twen-