

Think, vulture
near by the skirmish is a loud noise but art is silent like a vulture..... like a hangman

Think, vulture
I'm full of bloody botany

Think, vulture
the majority is a makeshift for many foldness

Kiss me, vulture in my red hot hiding-place

O vulture, lenient vulture lend me your laxative - lyotic, the black one .....

No, no, no, vulture I cannot speak with you because you must kill instead me or your business will be ruined.

Vulture, I'm sleeping with a naked eagle in your dissolute nest O Vulture, come to us let's make a natural history collection

Let's laugh about the envious crow
let in find a league of scare crows
